II. WORK SESSION

A. High Occupancy Housing (HOH) Specific Plan-Citizen's Review Session

The intent of the High Occupancy Housing (HOH) Specific Plan is to address how the City might promote viable options to increase density and provide more reasonably priced and diverse housing choices, while at the same time continue to enhance the character and economic vitality of the City that is important to all. For the purposes of this plan, HOH is generally buildings that house more than 75 bedrooms per acre or have more than 30 units per acre in dormitory or apartment-style units. This could also be called, very high-density housing or mid-rise buildings. Staff will present the feedback received from the 60-day public review, the resulting changes to the HOH Specific Plan, and issues raised for which staff requests further direction from the Planning and Zoning Commission, City Council and the public.

Staff: Sara Dechter, Comprehensive Planning Manager

Action Sought: Direction from Commission on final changes to the plan before the first public hearing
