Flagstaff Arizona

Flagstaff Community Profile

Flagstaff, Arizona is located at the intersection of Interstate 17 and Interstate 40, and is the largest city in Northern Arizona. The city is also the regional center and county seat for Coconino County, the second largest county in the 48 contiguous states. The City of Flagstaff, becoming a town in 1894. incorporated as a city in 1928, and currently comprising of just over 64 square miles, is nestled at the base of the San Francisco Peaks and surrounded by one of the largest pine forests on earth. Flagstaff drew its name from a very tall pine tree made into a flagpole in 1876 to celebrate our nation's centennial. At nearly 7,000 feet, Flagstaff is also one of the highest elevation cities in the United States. The city is a year-round mecca for visitors and many Arizonans maintain second homes here.

History

In 1855 Lieutenant Beale, in surveying a road from the Rio Grande in New Mexico to Fort Tejon in California, passed over the spot where Flagstaff now stands. While camping at the Eastern extremity of the present town, the lieutenant had his men cut the limbs from a straight pine tree in order to fly the United States flag.

The town's first recognized permanent settler, Thomas F. McMillan, arrived in 1876 and built a cabin at the base of Mars Hill. During the 1880's Flagstaff began to grow, opening its first post office and welcoming the booming railroad industry. The town had timber, sheep and cattle, and by 1886 Flagstaff was the biggest city on the main line between Albuquerque and the West Coast.

In 1894, Dr. Percival Lowell chose Flagstaff, due to its great visibility, as the site for the now famous Lowell Observatory. Thirty-six years later, Pluto was discovered through the observatory's telescopes. The Arizona Teacher's College began in 1899, later becoming Northern Arizona University (1966). During the 1920's, Route 66 was built right through town making Flagstaff a popular tourist stop. Flagstaff was incorporated as a city in 1928.

Today, Flagstaff is a community rich with cultural diversity, beauty and history, as well as amazing educational, recreational and scientific opportunities.

Weather

Flagstaff enjoys four distinct seasons. Moderate summer temperatures average twenty degrees less than Phoenix, and are punctuated with afternoon rain showers in July and August. The winter brings an average annual snowfall of 80.4 inches, much to the enjoyment of skiers, ice skaters and snowboarders. As the snow thaws into spring, blooming wildflowers are abundant and fragrant along Flagstaff's many hiking trails. Autumn is highlighted with the changing of the aspen leaves that transform the surrounding mountains into a golden tapestry of color. Flagstaff averages 278 days without precipitation each year, so it is not surprising that our residents love the great outdoors, and the mild climate encourages year-round outdoor activities.

Cultural Opportunities and Scenic Attractions

Flagstaff serves as the cultural hub of Northern Arizona. Because arts and cultural activities enhance the quality of life and have an economic impact, the City supports these endeavors. Funding support for these activities comes from the Bed, Board and Booze tax (Flagstaff Cultural Partners disburses these funds) and the General Fund. Throughout the year, there are art shows, festivals, live theater performances, and Native American arts and crafts exhibits to satisfy the most ardent enthusiast.

The Flagstaff Symphony Orchestra is a non-profit corporation dedicated to bringing world-class musical performances to their audiences, and to providing innovative programs in music education for youth across northern Arizona. The FSO conducts seven concerts from September through April, forming the core of the Symphony's season, with additional Young People's Concerts for children in the Flagstaff Unified School District, and a Lollipop concert in December for families with young children. Regular concerts are held in the 1500-seat Ardrey Auditorium on the campus of Northern Arizona University.

Lowell Observatory was founded in 1894 by Boston mathematician Percival Lowell and is best known for the discovery of Pluto. Lowell Observatory is also where astronomer V.M. Slipher gathered the first evidence that the universe is expanding. The Observatory will soon be home to the Discovery Channel Telescope scheduled to open in 2009. Lowell also maintains a vigorous education and outreach program, headquartered in the Steele Visitor Center on Mars Hill. Each year, about 70,000 people visit the Observatory to learn about astronomy by participating in multimedia programs, private and school programs, special events, and other educational activities. The Observatory offers daily-guided tours and evening programs.

The Museum of Northern Arizona offers permanent and changing exhibits in anthropology, biology, geology, and fine art of the Colorado Plateau. In addition, four festivals that attract national and international visitors, include the annual Zuni, Hopi, Navajo, and Hispanic Exhibitions with contemporary and traditional pottery, weaving, jewelry, and sand paintings, as well as native artist demonstrations and traditional dance.

The Coconino Center for the Arts, operated by the Flagstaff Cultural Partners, serves as the cultural center of the Flagstaff community. The 4000 square foot gallery features diverse rotating exhibitions showcasing local and regional artists, craftspeople, and Flagstaff students. Contemporary fine crafts, western art, and special science programs are also held throughout the year. The intimate 200-seat theater offers musical concerts, readings, theater performances, and other presentations.

The Pine Mountain Amphitheater at Fort Tuthill County Park features outdoor concerts and dance performances from May through September. The events feature local and regional artists, as well as nationally and internationally acclaimed artists.

Additionally, the City is committed to the development of a non-motorized urban trail (FUTS), which will interconnect all areas of the City when completed and will serve as an important transportation element, as well as a recreation amenity. The Flagstaff Regional Land Use and Transportation Plan shows an estimated 100 miles of FUTS. The City has completed approximately 42 miles to date.

More than 200 physicians are on active staff at the hospital, representing 50 medical specialties.

The City is surrounded within and without by coniferous forests, which allow for an array of outdoor sports and camping and backpacking opportunities. Downhill skiers enjoy 32 runs down the San Francisco Peaks, just 14 miles from downtown Flagstaff. Groomed trails at the Flagstaff Nordic Center provide over 40 kilometers of crosscountry skiing. Endless miles can be skied on the hundreds of miles of forest service roads. Flagstaff even sponsors the annual Winter Festival that includes dog sled races.

Hikers, joggers, and mountain bikers will find miles of trails, which range from gentle grades to extremely difficult terrain. The outdoor sportsman will find opportunities for hunting and fishing. Additional recreation amenities include the skateboard park and disc golf course, which provide year-round recreational opportunities.

Sustainability and Environmental Focus

Flagstaff citizens realize that the quality of life enjoyed in this mountain community is intricately related to the balance of societal, environmental, and economic considerations. As a result, the City of Flagstaff has dedicated considerable resources to a variety of sustainability, environmental, conservation efforts. The Sustainability Environmental Management Division works to ensure that all residents of Flagstaff are provided with a clean, safe, and ecologically sound community. Programs promote sustainability and conservation strategies with an emphasis on recycling, anti-litter, waste reduction, safe disposal of hazardous products, environmental compliance, sustainable community planning, composting, climate management, energy efficiency, renewable energy and fuels, brownfield land recycling, and landfill management.

Water conservation programs include a reclaimed water treatment plant and related distribution lines to transport water to large irrigation water users, rebates and incentives, development of xeriscape demonstration gardens, and a year round water use policy that restricts the times and days outside irrigation is allowed. Rebates are offered for qualifying high efficiency toilets, efficient washing machines, hot water re-circulators, and turf removal/xeriscape projects. The City also sells rain barrels to residents. Additionally, an annual AZ Project WET Water Festival occurs in October for all Flagstaff area 4th grade school children. Making the most efficient use of the water we have means we do not have to find additional sources of water as often.
